NOTES

Next Sunday, Nov. 6, Daylight Saving Time ends. Remember to change your clocks.

NOVEMBER, in our Roman Catholic Tradition, is the month we remember in an intense manner those who have died. All the liturgies celebrated here at the C+CC will have a special intention for those whose names are inscribed in our Book of Remembrance. Please, during November, write the names of your family and friends that you wish to be remembered this year in our book that will be located immediately to the side of the altar.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS are available for those who need them. They contain .001% gluten and are authorized for use in the Catholic Mass. If that amount of gluten still presents a problem, Fr. Larry will arrange for you to receive the consecrated wine at communion time. Please see the Mass coordinator or Fr. Larry before Mass to make arrangements.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

by Bud Ozar

Halloween is a time for wearing masks. Because the perfect family does not exist, you do not need to hide behind the mask of being a perfect family. Recognizing and admitting this is the first step to being real. Shed the mask and celebrate the family you are.

~Campus Connection~

FR. LARRY RICE, CSP

Father Larry Rice may be contacted at chaplain@rpi.edu.

On the first two days of November each year, the Church commemorates two linked feast days: All Saints, and All Souls. All Saints is easy to understand: we remember all those who have lived lives of heroic holiness, whether the Church has canonized them or not. But on All Souls, we remember all those who have died, not just the spiritual superstars.

From the earliest days the church has prayed for the deceased. Their judgment is in the hands of God, and we trust in God's mercy, but we also believe that God cares about us and our concerns, so prayers for our deceased loved ones are appropriate.

The feast day itself is rooted in the 2nd Century and is reflected in the writings of Tertullian. St. Odilo of Cluny, in the year 988 established a memorial of all the faithful departed. Rome added the feast to the church's calendar in the 13th century. In many parts of the world the celebration of this feast day is marked with particular energy, like el Dia del los Muertos in Mexico.

Wherever you are, it's appropriate to mark All Souls Day by praying for those who have gone before us in faith. It's also customary to visit the graves of our loved ones, and pray both for them, and for our own grieving and healing.

The feast of All Souls is a reminder to us of our mortality. Or, as one of my seminary professors once put it, "In the end, God's gonna kill us all." We are all finite, mortal creatures, who are loved by God who has endowed us with an immortal soul. Our ultimate destiny lies in God's hands, and even death does not separate us from his love.

SPIRITUAL SEEDS
