NOTES

Thank you, thank you, thank you to all who donated and/or served desserts at the ICC Election Eve Spaghetti Supper fundraiser. Your generous response was awesome.

We have lector books available for the upcoming liturgical year. They are a helpful aid for those who proclaim the Word during Mass. If you are able, we are requesting a donation of $15 to cover the cost. See the Mass coordinator to get yours.

NOVEMBER, in our Roman Catholic Tradition, is the month we remember in an intense manner those who have died. All the liturgies celebrated here at the C+CC will have a special intention for those whose names are inscribed in our Book of Remembrance. Please, during November, write the names of your family and friends that you wish to be remembered this year in our book that will be located immediately to the side of the altar.

COLLECTIONS

Your continued generosity is appreciated! Here are ways to give...

- Mail your collection envelope and/or your check made payable to Christ Sun of Justice or place in the collection basket.
- Make an online donation ("Mass donation" in the comments section.)
- Venmo: At offertory time (or any time, really!) you can use your Venmo app to give to "csjparish". If it is for a special collection, just note that in the comments box.
- THIS weekend is the collection for the hungry and income-insecure of our community. Thank you in advance for your generosity. The greatest need at the OLS Food Pantry is for: turkey gravy, stuffing, yams, French's crispy fried onions, and instant mashed potatoes.
- NEXT weekend: NOV 19/20 Special Collection - Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18) Please be generous and help end the cycle of poverty in the United States. ## A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

by Bud Ozar

So many conflicting voices and influences make parenting difficult. In today's gospel Jesus encourages parents to bravely "give testimony" and trust He will give us the "wisdom" to be good parents. You are not alone in parenting; a loving Father is standing with you.

~Campus Connection~

FR. LARRY RICE, CSP

Father Larry Rice may be contacted at chaplain@rpi.edu.

This coming week I'll be in Washington, DC, for the annual Paulist Fathers Pastors, Directors, and Superiors meeting. We gather each fall to catch up on community news, look at how we're implementing the mandates of last summer's General Assembly, and reflect on our mission cross the US.

These are important meetings, and I hope you will keep us in your prayers this week. As a member of a religious order (technically, a "society of apostolic life"), my life until last year has been framed by living and working with my Paulist brothers. My situation at RPI— living alone and serving as the only Paulist here— is a bit anomalous, but not unheard-of in the Paulist community. I'm very happy with my ministry and my life here, but I also need to be intentional about staying connected to my community.

Next weekend marks an important milestone for the Paulists. We will be dedicating Hecker House, the Paulist house of mission and studies in Washington DC. A few years ago, we sold our large seminary property and building, and began the process of constructing a house of formation and ministry that was more appropriately sized. The new building is really beautiful as well as functional. In addition to the expected facilities (chapel, bedrooms, common space, etc.) it will also house a state-of-the-art digital media production studio. This is very much in keeping with the Paulists engagement with communications technologies. I won't be able to stay for the dedication of the new building. I'll be back in Troy for our weekend liturgies.

Over the next few months, you'll get to meet more of my Paulist brothers. Some of them have graciously offered to cover for me occasionally, so that I might be able to spend a little time with my family in Syracuse and Rochester. They're good men, and I know you'll enjoy getting to know them.

If you're curious to know more about the Paulist community, please visit our web site at here. You can also sign up for our newsletter there and connect to our various social media channels.

COLLEGE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #13635

by Andy Bouffard bouffa@rpi.edu
