A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

When Jesus called his disciples, they came "immediately." Parents wish their children would respond as quickly, but they don't. Children grow slowly into responsibility. It is a process like walking, not done "immediately", but in small steps. Parenting demands patient encouragement.

FR. LARRY RICE, CSP

Father Larry Rice may be contacted at chaplain@rpi.edu

This weekend is the time for our Annual Paulist Appeal, when I ask you to consider supporting my religious community, the Paulist Fathers.

Last summer, at the Paulists' General Assembly, we affirmed some particular directions for our mission in the coming four years:

- Appreciating and welcome the gifts of people of color in the Church
- Addressing the toxic polarization in our society and our Church
- Welcoming those who feel excluded from our faith community
- Inviting more women into leadership and ministry
- Engaging young adults in their 20s and 30s.

These mission priorities align well with the interests and concerns of our parish community. As we continue to serve the RPI and Troy community, I believe these will be touchstones that will guide our local mission and ministries.

This annual appeal also helps provide the resources for recruiting and training new Paulists, and caring for our aging priests.

This year you've met many of my Paulist brothers: Fr. Frank Desiderio, Fr. Frank Sabatte, Fr. Ricky Manalo, Fr. Ron Franco, Fr. Evan Cummings, and Fr. Mike Hennessy. At a time when the local shortage of priests is so acute, we are blessed to have access to so many Paulists and their gifted preaching. Our community has also benefitted from the Paulists providing us with a videographer who visited us last Palm Sunday weekend, and produced three beautiful videos for our web site.

As we continue to strengthen the ties between the Paulist community and our parish, I hope you'll support the Paulists through this annual appeal. If you're already on the Paulists' mailing list, you've probably already receive the APA brochure and envelope. If you didn't get one in the mail we have some for you after Mass. Even if you're not in a position to make a gift at this time, please fill out the envelope with your contact information so we can keep in touch.

Thank you for all the ways you support the Paulist community, and the growth of the Paulist mission here in Troy and at RPI!
