A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

Disagreements are common in families, but what would you say if Jesus posed the question: "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control on another? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.

FROM FATHER JORDAN

Dear Parishioners,

As we embark on a new academic year, I am excited to announce a new chapter for our parish community. We are transforming our Parish Council into a Pastoral Advisory Group, reflecting our mission to foster deeper engagement and fresh perspectives in our parish life.

If you are a registered member of the parish and are interested in contributing to this dynamic group, I invite you to contact me. We are eager to include a diverse range of voices to guide and support our ministry.

Please note that to encourage broad participation, members may only serve on one parish committee this year.

I look forward to your enthusiastic response and to the collaborative work we will do together.

Blessings,
Fr Jordan

COLLECTIONS

Your continued generosity is appreciated!
Here are ways to give...

- Mail your collection envelope and/or your check made payable to Christ Sun of Justice or place in the collection basket.
- Make an online donation ("Mass donation" in the comments section.)
- Venmo: At offertory time (or any time, really!) you can use your Venmo app to give to "csparish". If it is for a special collection, just note that in the comments box.
- THIS weekend (Sept 21-22), the diocese will take up the national collection for The Catholic University of America.
