A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

by Bud Ozar

Today's gospel guarantees if we "ask" we will "receive," perhaps not what we wanted but what our Heavenly Father knows is best for us, His children. All the love we have for our children, God has for us and more. As our children trust us, we must trust "Our Father."

During the summer travel season many people of faith will take the opportunity to not just travel, but to go on a pilgrimage. For the last thousand years or so, one of the most popular pilgrimage destinations has been the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostella in Galicia in northwestern Spain. According to legend, the cathedral is the resting place of St. James the Great, one of the first apostles of Jesus Christ. By the 12th century, the pilgrimage to the apostles resting place had become one of the most popular travel routes in the Middle Ages. Known as El Camino de Santiago de Compostella, the pilgrimage route was described in a book called the Codex Calixtinus, which is widely regarded as the world's first travel guide. Pilgrims travel various paths across northern Spain to reach the Cathedral of St. James, and along the route, there are lodgings and hostels established specifically for those on pilgrimage.

Today, the Camino is still traveled by thousands of pilgrims each year. Along the pilgrimage routes, pilgrims document their progress by collecting stamps in a sort of passport called a credential. To receive a certificate of completion of the pilgrimage at the cathedral, pilgrims are required to walk at least the last 100 km, about sixty miles. In 2010, I had the opportunity to walk the Camino with a small group of students from Ohio State. Walking 100 km in four and a half days were challenging, but the sense of community among pilgrims, the quiet exertion of the walk, and the chance to follow the historic pilgrims' path is an experience that inevitably draws one closer to God and neighbor. Each year on July 25th, the feast of St. James the Great, I remember the Camino and rejoice that although I completed "the way," my pilgrimage is still just beginning. For more information on the Camino to Santiago to Compostella, you can go to the website Americanpilgrims.com.

Essential Questions for the journey

Greetings University Parish Christ Sun of Justice sisters and brothers!

Wow: the insights that have been shared by our faith community in response to our "Beyond Mass" series of questions have been profound! I don't know about you but often I have found myself reflecting on and praying more deeply with the things others have shared that grab my heart- both gift and grace. Thank you.

Over the next few weeks, we as a faith community are invited to explore this dynamic of having a few focused essential questions to ponder as we head to liturgy be it virtual or in-person and pray with beyond Mass with the hope that we will be inspired on our daily walk as disciples of Christ.

Here they are:

Essential Question #1: What caught your attention or grabbed your heart during liturgy today/this week?

Essential Question #2: How does it feel God is calling you to respond? How will you incorporate this into your life beyond Mass?

As with our earlier questions, the first initial of your first name will be used along with your one-two sentence insight in our bulletin these next few weeks as we seek to grow in our relationship with our God.

Please consider sharing yours with us by emailing me at spiritual.advisorccc@gmail.com

With deep gratitude, Tracy
