ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

MISSION STATEMENT

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we proclaim we are God's people under the banner of The University Parish of Christ Sun of Justice. Through our words and actions, the Good News of Christ Jesus is announced here at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute: students, staff, faculty, alumni, and local community members. As God's people on a spiritual journey, we are committed to lifelong learning, integrating faith with arts, science and technology. In addition, we endeavor to manifest justice and charity called for by our faith to make real the presence of a loving Christ, here and wherever we find ourselves.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE, BY BUD OZAR

Parenting is a lot like the story of the farmer in the gospel parable today. All growth is the Lord's work. We have no control over the process. In fact, the farmer doesn't even understand it, for the seed grows even when he sleeps. As parents, we can influence our children but nothing we do can guarantee results.

SPIRITUAL SEEDS

Cultivating Growth

Did you notice those photos of the pumpkin plants Steve and Sister Chris planted here at C+CC? Those vivacious plants are from our pumpkin seeds we were given at Easter! So awesome to behold the growth of plants especially the ones we have nurtured from infancy. So it is with our spiritual life: just as a plant needs watering and light, care and attention, we root and ground ourselves in prayer, in worship, being soaked in Scripture, and in life-giving encounters with God's people.

Question: have you planted your seeds yet? If not, what are you waiting for?

For Prayer: O Lord, Giver of Life and Sower of all good things, provide us with the graces we need to cultivate the seeds of faith You have gifted us with. Amen.

NEWMAN CATHOLIC FELLOWSHIP

by Megan Adam adam2@rpi.edu

This week in particular, through the bible readings and recent gatherings with fellow students and members of both the RPI and Christ Sun of Justice communities, I have come to see more clearly the Kingdom of God on Earth. Framed in the form of a parable in Mark's Gospel, God's kingdom is described as a mustard seed; though beginning as the smallest of all seeds, it becomes one of the largest plants, growing and branching in many directions. Though there are undoubtedly times where our world can seem to waver or we feel alone, it's essential to remember that a little faith has the ability to produce much fruit. As Saint Paul reminds us, as Catholics, we strive to walk by faith, not sight; and in reality, a mustard seed-size of faith and a community around us to can make this a possibility. Getting to further establish and expand our Newman club community through Fr. Larry and the CSJ parish has been such a blessing. Don't hesitate to reach out with our summer schedule and club updates. Have a great week everyone!

WELCOME FR. LARRY!

Fr. Larry reports: I'm setting in nicely, and really truly grateful for the warm welcome I've received! This is a challenging transition for everyone. Since Fr. Ed left two years ago, and because he'd been here for more than two decades, none of us have done a transition like this before. So we're figuring it out as we go. I'm particularly grateful to the Rensselaer Newman Foundation folks who have worked tirelessly to keep things going. They trusted that somehow Divine Providence would find a way to sustain the good ministry of this place.

I'm eager to get to know more of you better! Please keep reminding me of your names 😊. Also, I'd love to get together for coffee, a beer, or a meal. Hope to see you Sunday!

Peace. - Fr. Larry
