NOTES

NOVEMBER, in our Roman Catholic Tradition, is the month we remember in an intense manner those who have died. All the liturgies celebrated here at the C+CC will have a special intention for those whose names are inscribed in our Book of Remembrance. Please use your own pen to write the names of your family and friends that you wish to be remembered this year in our book that will be located immediately to the side of the altar. If anyone attending virtually would like the name/s of their loved ones added, please email MaryCragle Nagy.

Thanksgiving Eve Soup & Salad – Join us for this meal following the 5 PM Mass on Wed, Nov. 24. If you can, please consider bringing a dessert to share and a donation for the food pantry. Sign up on the board if you wish to attend. Since we will not be wearing masks while eating, we ask that only those who are fully vaccinated attend the meal. Thank you for understanding.

Thank you to all who contributed to the OLV-OLS food pantry this past weekend. It was much appreciated!

Please continue to wear a mask and maintain social distance. If you are not fully vaccinated, including children aged 2 to 12, you must wear a mask at all times in the Chapel that fully covers your mouth and nose. You must also fill out a Health Survey.

Lector Books are available for the upcoming liturgical year. If you are a lector, these are most helpful to practice your reading with. Please see the Mass coordinator to get a copy. If you are able, we are asking for a donation of $15 to cover the cost.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE By Bud Ozar

When we are young, our parents "tell us about Jesus" and we believe what our parents believe. At some point we must leave our parents faith and ask Pilate's question: "Are you the King?" Pilate is just asking these questions on our behalf.

NEWMAN CATHOLIC FELLOWSHIP by Megan Adam adam2@rpi.edu

It's hard to believe that we're approaching Thanksgiving week! As followers of Jesus, thankfulness is a trait that we're called to grow in; two of my favorite verses which encourage this development come from Colossians, and one I've come by recently in a podcast from the book of Psalms. The Colossians verses come from chapter 2, reading, "As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving" (6-7, NKJV). The verse from chapter 28 of Psalms speaks to gratitude and trust in God, two qualities which are essential in learning to love this life we've been given; "The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him" (7).

These verses provide much wisdom and guidance; from them, we're reminded of the interdependence of faith and thanksgiving. To come to know God and learn to trust in Him involves appreciating His creation and the Word He's given us. Responding to this goodness and grace with gratitude is our way to show what God means to us, especially around this time of year. Enjoy the upcoming week everyone, and safe travels to all RPI students and parishioners!

FR. LARRY RICE, CSP

"Where do you see yourself in five years?"

That's the somewhat clichéd question often asked in job interviews and performance evaluations. I suppose it's intended to solicit what a person's hopes, dreams, and ambitions are. These are important ideas, because they can shape a plan toward a desired future. It's a good question not just for individuals, but also for communities.

It's a question I'd like to ask at Christ Sun of Justice parish. Where do we see ourselves in five years? After some years of uncertainty about the future, the challenges of continuing without a resident chaplain, and what might be called mixed signals from the diocese, it's understandable that most people have been focused on-- and worried about-- the survival of the parish. The separation of the parish from the Rensselaer Newman Foundation has added some instability to the mix as well. I have a sense that we're moving past that uncertainty and instability. As we continue to work toward regularizing our legal and fiscal structures, we'll be able to take a collective breath, and begin to focus more clearly on our mission as a campus parish. We'll be able to start thinking about our future in some organized ways.

As you may start to experience, I'm by nature a planner. I like to think ahead, to anticipate growth, and to figure out the tasks, projects, and milestones that will take us to our shared goal. I like plans that are flexible and adaptable, and goals that are ambitious and attainable. So I think it's time to start asking ourselves, "where do we see ourselves in five years?" I'm interested to hear your thoughts and desires as we start making plans and setting goals.

Peace. - Fr. Larry
